My family and I were visiting Gettysburg for the weekend to attend the Wine Fest this past weekend. We originally stopped at Earl's Inn for dinner but were turned away as their kitchen was closed Saturday night at dinner time. Someone inside recommended the Bourbon Mill and we were pleasantly surprised. Everyone enjoyed their appetizers, entrees, and drinks here. The restaurant grounds are huge and spacious. We ate in... I want to like this place like once did in the Hanover location. The actual dining area is small. Some staff was eating and other were wrapping silverware along side of me. I don't know if I really cared for that type of atmosphere. I had a couple of different people at my table with drinks menus and even serving our meals. Yes they were all nice and professional. I expected a more positive experience for the set up... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious meals from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good diversity of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, and you may look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine. One also grills South American here with fresh seafood, meat, as well as beans and rice, and you can indulge in scrumptious American menus like Burger or Barbecue.
