a piece of france here in east nashville! from the moment they enter, they are transported to a French bistro. from the beautiful facility, to the extraordinary service and mouth watering eat! you could not ask for more! no reservations. first come basic, so they come here early and ready for an amazing evening! read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Once Upon A Time In France: Not even close to what I imagined. We had a party of 8 and were met by the door by the Chef. He wasn't exactly friendly and after some reluctance he sat us in a table of 5 and table of 3. The restaurant isn't big so this was acceptable. But it was all down hill from there. The escargot and bread were good but that was it. The steak was grisly, thin and way overpriced! The fries would have been acceptable had they been... read more. The fine and fresh juices listed on the drinks menu, perfectly complete the menus of the restaurant, look forward to the typical scrumptious French cuisine. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
