What User likes about Peking Dragon: eating was really good. some of the best Chinese I've ever had. the sizzling soup was a cool presentation and had a good crunch in the bite. the portions are huge, we had to take several crates to the house. in everything, the suppe and two dinners with the white rice came just under $50. I would definitely go back here. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Peking Dragon:

One of our entrées tasted like burned plastic. Server was generally not pleasant. Wontons came from San's filling. Everything else was quite delicious, the ratio of protein to vegetables was gone imo. read more.
