This is my second time ordering from here. I can say that my first time ordering from here the pizza needed a lot of salt and the crust needed work it was flavorless, but it showed potential. The crust was crispy and even though the sauce needed the help of salt it wasn't bad. The restaurant was also new to the area so we figured that they just need some time to get the recipe down. We finally decided to give it a sec... read more. What User doesn't like about Lou Malnati's Pizzeria Mesa:

No, that's not really Lou Malnati's. We had Lou's from other locations in the valley, and they lived up to the original Chicago offers. This Mesa location is however quite mull in comparison. Not sure whether this is a franchise location, and the owner does not follow the recipes and measurements, or what? Ordered a Chicago classic, which should have a full of sausage and cheese. I counted eight small pieces of sausage... read more. Lou Malnati's Pizzeria Mesa from Mesa is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends.
