This is a typical Korean restaurant that is above average by my standards. The place can be very busy on weekends for dinner. During those times, servers can be extremely busy so they might not be as attentive. Ambience is hippy and young but needs some upgrade. Some decor inside look many years old. Pricing is fair on most dishes. Bossam (boiled pork, with wraps) and Jokbal (pork feet) are my favorite dishes. I took... read more. What W doesn't like about Bogul Bogul [?][?][?][?]:

Ordered spicy seafood soup, does this look appetizing? Looks like someone off the street with no experience cooked it. No flavor, came with crab but with mushy meat. They were nice enough to replace it with beef bulgogi, even that came out sad, it looked like it was boiled, barely any flavor. The place used to be good, not sure what happened. read more.
