Pros- lots of food for the price, always piping hot when it comes out, food taste is consistent and never that busy so you always get a table
Cons- every time we come, whoever is serving us always takes forever to come back even if service is slow that night. They do have an up charge for cards, but it's posted everywhere about it read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Hunan Village:

I almost always go after my Chinese food and it's usually very good, but this time it wasn't good at eating. I've got a lot of things and a few. the lo mein was like eating pure spaghetti noodles, it did not look out or taste as if it had a sauce on it and my egg rolls were burned and hard as leathers. I couldn't even bite her or chew her. I was wasted in a round of over $23.00 because I threw it all in the garbage. r... read more.
