I think this is the best sushi in elk grove. that's just about the fish and rice. I usually eat nitriri sushi, so I can't talk to others of the menu. the fish is fresh and the correct temperature. the rice has good texture and taste. the service here is great and it is always a beautiful welcoming atmosphere. What User doesn't like about Jang Goon Sushi Korean Bbq:

I can't get time for the BENTO-BOXs! I ordered the beef-Bulgogi-Bugo box with California rolls and it came out to $22. I thought the portions would be bigger until I came home and checked it. the rice portion was the size of something a baby could eat. even though they gave a lot of bark, I am still very disappointed. this one bentobox was $22!
