I have waited ages to try this restaurant, but it was a complete disappointment and very low value for my fine dining budget. As other reviewers said, the featured vegetables were rendered watery and bland and the limited flavors repeated throughout the courses. I had never had carpaccio so maybe I'd never like it, but it was as thick as a sausage and the one thing I know about carpaccio is "thin I do love the ambien... read more. We were looking for a restaurant with awesome food, in a fine dining setting and this restaurant disappointed. The soup was awful, the board of bites to share was uninteresting and I did not like what I ate of my main course. All in all the food was bad, and I love eating and cooking food. The restaurant was hot, when we were finally able to flag down someone to move a fan to help with the heat she just faced a fan d... read more.
