had 3 dishes, the duck, mais risotto and hen the forest mushrooms. all up. Dishes come from family style, which was great. everything was so good that we really wanted to share the food. looked up that can be a little loud when there are 6 or 8 tops. would rather sit down. the service was in front of location, but not intrusive. more than 3.5 stars. large small french stain with decent good food and great service. we ordered the hen of the wood mushroom salad that was amazing. the short rib jams, corn risotto and stungeness crebs were good, but not great. the desserts were amazing! overall a beautiful experience, but not a lot of equipped dishes.
