There's really not much to say. The food was superb and the service superior. Try the winter squash soup and the homemade gnocchi with chicken and duck confit. We shared the 40 oz rib steak and had plenty left over to take home. My only observation about the steak was that there wasn't a whole lot of meat on the bone itself and I'm a bone nibbler! Many kosher restaurants add an automatic 18% gratuity to the check and... read more.
