Yes, just yes. Tiny place. Hard to get to and park. It's not fast or cheap. The staff may not be polite and the food takes some time to come out. And yet, due to the emotions the food gives me, the whole experience just seems right. read more. What User doesn't like about Louisiana Famous Fried Chicken:

I wanted to try one of those fried chicken. my son and I have been curious since we saw them in the south central. not the best fried huh I've ever had, but it's okay, a cross between stater bros and popeyes. the other problem was that they don't take any kind of plastic. only cash, and be ready to wait 20-25 for her to be ready.
