What User likes about Danish Bakery: Popped in for an afternoon coffee. They have soy milk for your coffee. In talking with the server, she told us the strudel and turnovers (except raspberry cream cheese) were vegan. She even checked with the other server (who was vegan) if anything else was. She then gave us some other local vegan restaurant recommendations. Simple decor and cash only. Really good turnovers! read more. What User doesn't like about Danish Bakery: her personal was always friendly and friendly. during our stay in leavenworth we caught some drinks at this place. they offer plant milk and have a nice selection of vegan drinks options. I did not really get why it was a Danish bakery in the center of the city, instead of a German bakery. we have not tried one of their baked were it saw everything very delish and cute tho! updated by the previous review on 2021 09 1...
