Great place. Especially when you want a big juicy greasy burger. This place is a must. A little expensive for burger and fries. But for the service, experience and juicy burger. This is a must. Only 1 a month though. My heart cant handle the grease everyday...lol read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside.

What User doesn't like about Five Guys:

put an online order, got to find home that one of my burgers was not completely boiled. I called the load to talk to a manager (tim) and I was told that he was with a customer, I could keep it. After tim was about five minutes in wait and some less than corresponding music and the cavaliers game to hear comes tim to the phone, I declare that my burger was boiled and I give my order number, names and order data. tim t...
