Last weekend, my family celebrated 70. My mother's birthday party by keeping the banquet room. We had about 20 people in our party. There was no reservation fee for the room and the costs for the amount of food we received per person were extremely appropriate. The room was large enough to meet our needs and allows people to move and socialize comfortably if they wanted. Lauren, our hostess, had only worked there for... read more. What User doesn't like about Smoky Mountain Pizzeria Grill:

Food was great, even with being delivered, and delivery was on time. It was still hot and tasted good. The person who took my order was very pleasant and answered the phone quickly. The only qualm I have is that she took my credit card number then repeated my credit card number and expiration in full to confirm she got it correct.

This is not appropriate as anyone could have overheard and stolen my number. To confirm... read more.
