we sat at a high peak near the bar. the bartender worked so hard and yet he was still attentive and his service was impeccable. the drinks were brilliant, the white sangria was so delicious for a warmer than normal autumn day. my daughters had laughter, they said they were brilliant. I had dinner that morning and my only criticism was that it was cold (baked was cold) when it came out. that was warm I guess it was ti... read more. What User

doesn't like about Clerys:

We went to watch a soccer game. It seemed that the staff did not care about our group (100 plus with reservation). They were not ready at all. There were refusing to change the game from college football to soccer while 100 plus were waiting. Felt unwelcome, I really like the venue but they really need to retrain in customer service.
