Our group of four adults had only breakfast, but everyone was thrilled with their choice. We did not expect any Irish fare, and it took some questions and web search to know what we got (black and white pudding, rash, etc.,

but we keep happy and satiated for a reasonable price considering the size (approx. $13 per person. The peasant breakfast (picture) was great, especially the domestic frits and the sausage with so... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its customers.
