Stopped in for Sunday breakfast before getting on the road. The place was packed and they seemed to be shorthanded. I only saw one cook. The waitresses were doing the best they could taking care of their tables. They moved fast and checked in often to see if we needed anything. It took about an hour to get our food. My omelet was good. The only thing I didn't care for was the cheese they used. The peach tea was the b... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its customers.
