Neighborhood Diner. Has the charm of a family restaurant. The food is good. The service can be on the slow side. It's nothing of great concern. I really wish this place would be open later. Think a later night in downtown is over. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Mr Ts Family:

I don't think I'll eat here again. I never impressed the food. Got the eggs Benedict, which strangely had huge slices of tomatoes and avocado. Tomatoes maybe but avocado does not belong with eggs Benedict. The Hollandaise sauce was bland, nothing had any taste. I asked for salsa to eat the potatoes. I was not offered toast or cookies and Gravy as it should come. Also this place should not call itself family-friendly.... read more. If you're craving some spicy South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: delightful meals, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, The guests of the restaurant also appreciate the extensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. Eating at the typical American diner is a unique event thanks to the surroundings, and you have the opportunity to try delicious American menus like Burger or Barbecue.
