The dinner menu may look a little pricey for a small restaurant such as this but it is totally worth the value and easily can be shared. The classic fried chicken with white meat was moist and had just enough flavor. The okra and corn was cooked very well and I wished I had ordered two as my sides but alas I didn't go wrong by ordering the cornbread (sweet). The venue has seating in the front and in the back with a s... read more. What Pance doesn't like about Mitchell's Soul Food:

We stopped here for a quick lunch while biking and had a great meal. The chicken was tender, the sauce was homemade, and our favorite side was the stewed tomatoes and okra. Besides the food, my favorite part of the experience was the great advice posted all over the walls. Mitchell's is part diner and part art museum with its well-curated and thought-provoking walls. We'll definitely come back. read more.
