I think it's time for me to make an assessment of this place. I go to this place since I was a child, and I absolutely love the interior design of this place, it's beautiful. I love her egg blossom (or egg drop soup; it is my favorite article I always get extra! It's never disappointing and I always get extra sauce because it's just so delicious. The best in town when I say something: read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. What Jacquie Warnick doesn't like about Mandarin Pine:

Through the years we have visited The Mandarin Pine and enjoyed the food. However the last two times I was there in August then again September the food was lacking in flavor and texture. Very bland, nothing special. Next time I'll just have the soup. My grandkids enjoyed it, I have a more discretionary palette. Wish I could rave about something, but alas!
