This is my most favorite Chinese place in New England! So happy to have them. We drive well over an hour to eat here. Not only is the food wonderful and DELICIOUS but the people here are so professional and sweet! Thank you Yen, Jenny and family! If I could drive here and eat it everyday, I would. So we make an excuse to eat here whenever we can. read-more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant at no extra cost. What Jakeornot doesn't like about Hong Kong Island:

Example: Sweet and sour pork. Hard fried round balls, like ping pong balls but smaller, with tough pork inside, drowned in red sauce. No sour notes whatsoever. Example: Pork lo mein. Bland, greasy noodles with tough bits of pork, almost no vegetable. Suggestion: Cook should consult 'Woks of Life' blog for recipes, or stop cooking. read more. The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Hong Kong Island from Rockland, with its creative Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian meals. The versatile, scrumptious Chinese cuisine always goes down well with guests, there are also delectable vegetarian recipes in the menu.
