This place redefines falafel to be this fried yellow tasteless goop that is not the Lebanese, middle eastern variety. Tahini is ok and likely out of a can, Dolma is good and likely out of a can, Babaghanoush is a tasteless blob. Had to abandon and go to another dinner place. The only saving grace is the backyard setting with one (only one) friendly, fast staff. read more. Kasbah Garden Cafe from New Haven serves tasty, light digestible Mediterranean cuisine with its typical meals, Furthermore, the customers of the establishment enjoy the extensive selection of the various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available. For those who are still undecided, the smell of fresh flatbread and the scrumptious, sticky delight of fresh baklava might be just the conviction they need - the Middle East is undeniably closer than one assumes, The magical desserts of the local also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
