We haven't been with The Settlement for years. The opportunity came to go there. The food is excellent. Good portion sizes. My granddaughter ordered Pommes and the waitress asked if we wanted to share the order between us. I said yes. My granddaughter was confused. When the food arrived, she saw how many fries were there and agreed that it was a great crowd. Remember basket full. By the way, Friday night has fish roa... read more. What User doesn't like about The Settlement:

The food was good. But we felt like we were inconveniencing them. They were very gruff with us throughout our visit. We had 6 people at our table and there were hardly anyone else in there. It took 10 minutes to get someone to come over to take our orders. One of the ladies was not even helping and was sitting at the bar while I was looking for help. She saw me searching for someone but did not volunteer. Overall, n... read more.
