We arrived at the Wharf House on Sunday afternoon at 2:00 in November and had our selection of tables with views. Becca our server quickly became our friend, and it delivered excellent service during our first visit. The establishment of the restaurant is charming nautical. My wife loved the Clam-Chowder that was served in an acidic dough dish, and said it was much better than the Clam-Chowder that she had the day be... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Capitola Wharf:

Understaffed with only one server and one bartender on a beautiful summer weeknight. So we can guess how bad the wait times are. Dirty dishes are left on the empty tables so long it's unsanitary. They automatically factor in the tip even for takeout for one person. They probably can get away with bad service since they're the only place on the wharf to have a nice meal. That still won't make me want to go back there.... read more.
