I live in the neighborhood. It's one of many restaurants on Central Ave, however, Rumba is flavorful inexpensive.

Pros: tasty food, lower than avg prices, good variety and selection Cons: no organized way of ordering, the pandemic did force them to create a single file line but a lot of people still gravitate to the counter and waitresses don't bother to adhere to who is next on the actual line. It could be very frustrating... read more. What maria Flores doesn't like about Rumbas Cafe:

I love this place's food but everything I go there after waiting a while to be served at the counter the waiter never asks who is next and take the person that got there last order. I always have to say, hey I have been waiting and you just take them? Other than that the food is good and the staff is nice. read more. The catering service is also provided by the establishment for its guests, satisfy your craving for spicy dishes with Quesadillas or a rich chili at Rumbas Cafe, the ultimate destination for Latin American cuisine. Sometimes you may not want to consume a lot, in this case one of the fine sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack is just right, you can also discover scrumptious South American menus on the menu.
