this little diner at Gerald's tires was recommended by Google and it was ok. We have fried chicken with side-green beans, mac n' cheese. I was not a fan of mac (the cheese had separated and the pasta was watery,) the green beans were skilled (ok with enough salt and pepper,) but the chicken was pretty good. It was juicy, well seasoned and fully cooked. The sweet tea was also really good and the service was great. I could... read more. If you're craving for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: exquisite dishes, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, here they serve an appetizing brunch in the morning. Furthermore, the surroundings of the original American diner turns the meal into an extraordinary experience. The customers of the establishment are also thrilled with the comprehensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
