The place from Oak Grove offers 18 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average $15.6. What Matt Wornowicz likes about Mikado Japanese Steakhouse Sushi:

Went here for a 6 person business lunch. They do the show thing for hibachi but not really the right atmosphere for business discussions. We ate at a table... half ordered sushi, half ordered hibachi. I went with sushi but not a big sushi menu. It was good, biggest issue was the sushi came out at least 10 minutes earlier than the cooked meals and the timing created a slightly awkward eating arrangement. Most places t... read more. What Austin Bryan doesn't like about Mikado Japanese Steakhouse Sushi:

Service is better at the cook in front of you side. Food is good, but meat quality could be better and portions sizes larger. I wish I had taken a picture of the tray first. The overall tastes wasn't bursting with flavor, very watered down. I expected better considering the price. read more. In the kitchen of Mikado Japanese Steakhouse Sushi in Oak Grove, traditional meals are prepared with typical Asian spices fine, and it's made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese meals cooked. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Mikado Japanese Steakhouse Sushi. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, scrumptious particularly are the Maki and delicacies like Te-Maki that this restaurant is known for.
