Painfully small portions. I ordered the brisket with crisp bark and you can see there was almost no bark at all. It tasted a little more like dry roast beef. The green beans were pretty good but again small portions. My son's smoked turkey was good too. I'm still hungry after eating here for $11 though. I hate to compare restaurants in a review but I never leave Branding Iron with an empty stomach, it's cheaper and t... read more.
