This is the best Mexican food in this part of Rancho Bernardo. I like their Adobada and the Carne Asada is pretty good. They used to have some good coupons on their website and other places, but now there aren't as many and usually there is a higher minimum purchase (e.g. their Entertainment Book coupons).

Good monster/mission style burritos. Can be a bit on the high side in price as burritos run $9-11 each as of December 2018. It is a local chain so multiple stores around. They also are part of the miles dining program so if registered you get airlines miles when eating here. The stores are usually clean and food prep doesn't take too long. I eat here 2 or 3 times a month so it's worth a stop. read more.
