The food was great. The service is counter-order and they deliver to your table. The drinks are selfish. If you're in a wheelchair, there's not much space to maneuver. The food is server on plates, but the cutlery is plastic. The decor is unique, a racoon butt is mounted on the wall together with deer heads. I had the chicken cabobs and they were tasteful and fantastic. The selection of pages was great. I had the fra... read more. What User doesn't like about Lone Star Grill:

Hamburger with mushrooms swiss cheese was good but slightly burnt on one side. Grilled chicken was a little well done. Creamed spinach appeared to be boiled spinach with a little yellow cheese tossed on top, not creamed. Will probably try a hamburger with onion rings next time as they looked good. read more.
