Not a fan of their gyro bread, which is smaller, thick, and chewy as opposed to larger, thinner, and crisper that ive seen similar chains use. I could already tell that you wouldn't be able to put much into them before making it impossible to eat without it falling apart. Not a whole lot of options, everything is a la carte so you kind of have to know what you want ahead of time . Guy taking order does not really exp... read more.
