Rude, not kid friendly, no high chairs. Menu looked delicious but after being seated we left as we were told multiple times that they had no highchairs (we only asked once). We got the feeling they do not like kids. We were told there were no outside liquids allowed when we took out our daughters sippy cup. There are also signs posted saying to not leave children unattended. Hust putting this out there for other par... read more. The guests love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity.
