My bf I love the happy hour here and the servers are always beautiful, personal and knowledge about the menu!

If this place is not so far from where we live, we would come back quite often! I would probably suggest a reservation before the time, as there are not many places! read more. What Adam Clark doesn't like about Moira Sushi Kitchen:

First and last time I go here. Paid around 70$. Got the chef's sashimi. Fish was tasteless, and the edges were dried out. One of the choices was seared. Not what I enjoyed when ordering sashimi, but more surprising and gross is that they rolled it in what I'd guess is tajin. The color of the fish was all wrong too. Also got two salmon sashimi orderers. Salmon was also tasteless and they put 1 dallop of wasabi under t... read more. In the Moira Sushi Kitchen from Phoenix, a lot of emphasis is placed on the preparation of easy-to-digest, fine Japanese dishes with freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, there are also delectable vegetarian recipes in the menu. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Moira Sushi Kitchen. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, Moreover, the menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially comprehensive selection of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try.
