We sat in the section of an alternative server that did not participate in our needs after sitting. Jamie joined, got our drinks, also our order, brought our food and made a great job. If it hadn't been for them, we would have risen and left. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its guests. What User doesn't like about Mccorkle's: brandy waited for us no, that is not quite right, we waited for them. waited for 5 minutes, then had to ask if they would take our dinner order that set the ton for the evening: s l o w, despite a Wednesday night and not occupied from the far. we never got the mushroom appetizers. each interaction with brandy was as if we interrupted their talks with the other waiters. drinks were great, eating was good (can speak wi...
