This place is always crowded especially on the weekend. You have to wait for your sittings (20-40mins) depending on how busy they are. However, the food is worth the wait. They offer a variety of rolls, sushi and sashimi. read more. What Jordan Rio doesn't like about Sushi House:

We were greeted nicely at the door, once we sat down it was like we no longer existed. Servers were not polite, our order was cut short by the staff. We filled out an appropriate amount of sushi and was given what they felt we could eat. Sushi was good, after waiting 45 min we were given straws for our water. The staff was not happy we were there and was seen by how they interacted with other customers. Will not be g...
