Sansai is a deceptive good place for lunch or a light dinner. The hotel is located in the rear (right) of a fast food-stuffed marble next to the eastern entrance to BUR airport, serving Japanese style plates, soups and salads. Prices are low-medium, lunch will return you $15 to $20. An unusual feature of these remnants is the use of large touchscreens to take your order, somehow like McDonald's. It seems that many e... The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities.

What User doesn't like about Sansai Japanese Grill:

The food was delicious, my sadness is the special thing on an electronic board that flashes. Like you want me to see your slideshow. Since my sadness won? Do not slow down your slideshow to ACTUALLY read your register should orally offer the special. Your register should also say you want to add brown rice for an additional fee, instead of adding a fee without explanation and no where on yr menu said it at a fee. read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its customers, fine particularly are the Sushi and specialties like Sashimi that this restaurant is known for. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Sansai Japanese Grill. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known menus too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to prepare easily digestible Japanese menus.
