What User likes about Tin Lizzy's Midtown: We enjoyed patio dining and the singer. All the food was fresh and tasty. One caution the server offered us chips, queso, guacamole, and salsa. With the queso and guac, I didn't expect this to be the gratis chips and salsa common at so many restaurants. But, I didn't see the price until after the server had left the table. The serving was plentiful and more appropriate for two couples instead of just my wife and me w... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Tin Lizzy's Midtown:

I booked a reservation 5 days in advance. When I arrived with my party of 8, the hostess took 15 minutes to even come from the back to greet us. Then she said she was surprised that a large party was coming in. She told me it'd be 30 more minutes before she would seat me. She was very rude and unaccommodating. There were open seats everywhere in the restaurant. I told her that I was shocked she was surprised because... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only flavorful cuisine, but also a large and comprehensive variety of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Surely, it's also a nice event to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and eat like the cowboys or even the bandits with a drink or two paired with onion rings and a nice juicy burger, there are also tasty vegetarian menus on the menu.
