this was our second visit to the chop house and it was not disappointed. we were there for birthday dinner and the food was excellent. our waitress was very busy, but attentive to us, we will definitely come back. read more.

What User doesn't like about The Chop House Athens:

To make reservations and still have to wait 30mins was upsetting, some other things customer service before dinning took place but don't know if this comment public didn't want to go there.
