What User likes about Alejandra's Mexican:

Marsing is a tiny community on the Snake River just outside Nampa, Idaho. The town is a throughback to another era. And the restaurant is quaint and dated. But the food is delicious, the folks there deliver old world charm and service that is usually gone from today's chain restaurant fair. I recommend you take the time and drive out there. It's so peaceful. The restaurant is a stone's throw from the river and view is... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities.

What User doesn't like about Alejandra's Mexican:

Three of us ordered Beef Nachos (cost is $11.00 each) to go. Needless to say we should have checked at the restaurant. What we got was chicken. I hate chicken so didn't eat much. When I mentioned it the next time I stopped in there was a flippant apology. I explained it was the second time it's happened to me but that didn't seem to matter. I will never go back. Look forward to the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), The visitors of the establishment also consider the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. If you want to have breakfast, a tasty brunch awaits you.
