This is a great place for some real Mexican street food. The last time we grabbed food to go, we got the birria (beef and goat), which are both delicious, and the pozole is also amazing. In addition to the soups, the menu offers a wide variety of tacos, burritos, nachos, and plates (the mole is wonderful). Sahuayo Taqueria is located in the J&Ts Market, so it is more of a to-go option than a sit-down type of experien... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Bryan Y doesn't like about Sahuayo Taqueria:

only had their breakfast burrito, the one with bacon. it's huge and greasy and yummy. but it's not crazy delicious or anything like that. it's good and they are open before 10 so that's what puts them above the rest. a lot of these hipster carts and breakfast burrito joints don't open till like 10 or later! like what's the point of that. so it is a breath of fresh air to get breakfast at breakfast time (especially if...
