Upon arrival, given the plaza I didn't think much of the place at first, until I got closer. Upon walking in you immediately are greeted by the friendly and welcoming vibes the establishment has. The food came out promptly, and everything from the appetizers to the meals themselves were top tier. Given I have visited many food places, this will cement itself as one of my favorites in South Florida. The staff was nice... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. What User doesn't like about Saman Arepas Bistro:

Good food but the service is really lacking. They take forever to bring the drinks and never follow up on your order to see if you need anything else. They added another tables tab to mine by mistake and if I didn't check it and bring it up I would have paid their tab. Thankfully they were good about fixing it. The mini arepa sliders, tequeños and the cachapa were very good. Overall I would give them another chance b... read more.
