We stopped by this iconic BBQ spot in Kansas City after a Chiefs game and being my first time in KC, I really enjoyed the Q. I got the Burnt Ends sandwich, baked beans, and potato salad. Talk about a sleeping pill, the sandwich had that smoke flavor all the way through and the beans had so much flavor as well. Potato salad was smooth and creamy. I asked for extra sauce, the hot version, more pickles and it was delic... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside. What Travis B doesn't like about Gates -b-q: Very rude people. I have been to a lot of gates locations in this city. This one has to be the nastiest one so far. Of course I'm not the right color here for sure. They play favors to other blacks here. The food was dry and not good at all. Fly traps up everywhere and full. Wallpaper peeling off the wall. Very dirty place. 34.00 for sausage on bread, beans, onions, and a soda. Won't ever be back to this location. Had... read more.
