We were in Williamsburg for a family vacay and scratch made ice cream is always on our foodie short list when we road trip. Alas, the area doesn't seem to have a top shelf place for homemade hard ice cream (our preference). But being from Rochester, NY, we do love our custard. So Meadows was a more than capable stand in for no hard ice cream.We had various sundaes on our first visit, which was a packed Sunday evening... read more.
