We arrived at 7:00 and stayed until 8:30. We were the only guests inside and a occupied table outside. Between the tables were far beyond expectations. I guess people are still worried, so the lack of Diners. read more. What

after reading reviews for this place, we decided to go for brunch, unfortunately, the food was a disappointment, and the service was very slow. It took our food almost 25 30 min to come out for a table of 4 and it wasn't fresh, the chicken and waffles seemed to have been grilled first, they had a charcoal flavor and half of it didn't have the breading on it so we could see the char marks it was disappointing for sure...
