Food was good, not great. Famous French toast was fun to try. The service was attentive, despite a busy Saturday morning in the dining room. On site parking on the back. read more. What User doesn't like about Marston's Pasadena:

This place serves classic American food, best known for their breakfast and lunch. Their French toast is quite famous. The menu has not changed much in the last few years. My California omelette was delicious but came out really oily. The potatoes were also oily and were not evenly cooked. So sad about the quality of the food today. read more.
