Great people great food. I had the pleasure of visiting Bowker's Deli and meeting the owners to Hurricane Sandy, and I would be amiss if I didn't say they were the most gracious and just all around great people. Not only do they feed all volunteers working around the clock to restore the island to their former glory, but they helped to give a hand to the community they call home! There is nothing I can say for food,... read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside, and there is free WiFi. What Dranixo doesn't like about South Beach Grill:

My wife and I went here on a Saturday afternoon and she ordered the French toast and I ordered the cheese steak they both looked alright but as we opened them up my cheesesteak looked something out of a lunch cafeteria and her French toast looked like something they pulled out of the trash along with the syrup that had chunks of old syrup floating around in it this place was extremely expensive especially for a steak...
