What Gina Irvine likes about Mott Street Eatery: Come here for no frills old school Cantonese eateries in a food court. Most of the customers seem to be coming here for a long time. It can get crowded around lunch time and sharing tables with others is pretty common. Really like the tofu pudding (doufu hua) place where they make fresh tofu pudding (can be sweet or savory) and fresh soy milk. There are also great options for your typical go-to dim sum dishes like ch... read more. What abk doesn't like about Mott Street Eatery:

I did not enjoy anything in the fried rice I ordered at one of the stall in the right. But it was just one stall and I haven't tried all the stalls here. So don't want to generalize. But you've been warned. read more.
