The cafe in IKEA was very good. We had the plate of Swedish meatballs and they were delicious! Could have used a little salt and pepper, but you can add that if you sit down. The portion size was perfect and there were simply not many, if at all, complaints. The staff was nice, the atmosphere was relaxed. Price was great, especially the page menu that is super cheap, some items were about $0.60 or so. Very affordable... read more. IKEA's restaurant used to be a way better deal. Now it's just ok. They got rid of the espresso machine, raised the prices, and the diameter of the regular Swedish meatballs seem smaller. My wife and I like salmon and cod, so along with our regular meatballs order, we decided to try the salmon balls. Their texture was dry as if too many bread crumbs were used and they tasted a little fishy (in a bad way). We were also... read more.
