What User likes about Ping's Hibachi: The fresh food is full of flavors that you do not find in the Middle West. I can't believe I've waited so long to try this place, and the amazing service was completely unexpected. I encourage everyone to try this place, especially everyone from the city read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, and there is complimentary WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Ping's Hibachi: I usually love pings, but not so much now. The food is usually great with very few slip-ups, although today I got a badly made seafood jello. Overcooked crabs, smokey shrimps and for a seafood friend almost no seafood, none of the vegetables were boiled directly except broccoli. also found an unnamed bug in my rice. They make pretty good apps, but so their justice for 2 stars. read more. In the Ping's Hibachi from Warrensburg, using a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, easy-to-digest, flavorful Japanese menus are prepared, and you can look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine. The preparation of the meals is done authentically Asian, Especially fine are also the Sashimi and delicacies like Sashimi from this restaurant.
