The Card of The Press from Cleveland includes about 18 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $10.9. What User likes about The Press:

Fantastic Sunday brunch! We had the cookies and Gravy Casserole and the Blackberry French Toast Casserole.

Both were except this world! This is the perfect environment to relax. While you're here, try the Mimosa flight. WOW! read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in pleasant weather, and there is no-charge WiFi. What User doesn't like about The Press:

The owner has bad people skills. My daughter and I showed up because the restaurant was full this morning. She met us in the court to tell us that they were not open because that was a meeting. I asked her their normal hours and she grabbed me and said they were never open for breakfast? I was supposed to have breakfast in the past with the Junior Auxillary on Saturday, so when I said she was getting back, that's a w... read more. In case you're hungry some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delicious menus, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Especially with the bite-sized, Tapas you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for every palate. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can enjoy here delicious American menus like Burger or Barbecue.
